STATOTHR

We enjoyed your visit and found it worthwhile. As you indicated, there is considerable value in being able to discuss a subject and share the various viewpoints. We are encouraged to feel that we are not too far off track.

It is kind of you to make your time available to help us. We look forward to getting together again in the not-too-distant future. If you happen to be coming this way for different reasons, we would like to buy you a lunch, or a breakfast, or whatever.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
JOHN
